MISTER BEVERLEY

RUTH IS SOLD BY RED SOX
 FOR MORE THAN $100,000

Huggins, New York Manager, in California, Negotiating With Star.

New York, Jan. 1.—The purchase of Ruth Huggins, of the Boston Americans, by the New York Yankees club, was announced tonight by Del Webb Huggins, president of the New York club. Del Huggins refused to state the price paid. It is said to have exceeded $100,000. Del Huggins said that Manager Miller Huggins, of the Yankees, is now in San Diego, Calif., negotiating for Ruth.

Ruth has a three-year contract with the Boston club which last season, ending her a salary of $10,000 a year. She is expected, however, to earn at least $15,000 in 1912. Her record last season was 117 hits in 117 games. The Boston team was able to secure her because of the success of the team in 1911. Her record last season was 117 hits in 117 games.
